March 2021

A message from Rob,

As we emerge from winter and embrace the annual “mud” season, the Mountain Laurel Chamber of Commerce (MLCC) is focusing on the success and advancement of business with programs emphasizing efforts of being better together as announced by MLCC Executive Director, Kris Enberg. Featured in her message, in the MLCC QUARTERLY CHAT, the MLCC is focusing on the theme of “BETTER TOGETHER” in 2021, believing, “together, we will continue our mission to enhance the economic growth and development of the business community by offering a variety of services and programs to meet the needs of businesses, residents, and tourists,” being the best statement to introduce the events and programs coming through the MLCC in the months ahead.

Being “BETTER TOGETHER” rang true in the recent success of our annual Stocking Stuffer ticket and Build-a-Snowman contest, as together we built a lot of excitement and had a lot of fun, thank you!

The MLCC Virtual Job Fair (VJF) sponsored by Josh Crowe of Berkshire Hathaway Home Services continues our “BETTER TOGETHER” efforts in today’s hectic society. The MLCC VJF confronts two issues that all businesses go through when hiring; finding employees enthusiastic about positions and hiring quickly enough that day-to-day procedures are not interrupted. Applicants will become part of a database of potential employees that members can quickly access through the MLCC digital services to obtain local help.

In the past months, I have focused on residents as employees to our members, to encourage them to remain in our local workplace and communities. The upcoming MLCC VJF Link is designed to build identification, access, and coordination of available persons registered, and accelerate help to our local businesses. Complimenting this program, along with the Fun Map, Golf Outing, Kids Day, Ladies Day Bash, etc., the MLCC is proud to welcome LHTC Media as the Chamber’s newest marketing partners. LHTC Media will assist in helping us continue to serve the local business community by providing web development, marketing, and design expertise as needed.

These programs and developments have been coordinated and encouraged by our Executive Director, Kris Enberg, who has been diligent throughout the past year to keep businesses connected. I congratulate Kris on her energy and resourceful tenacity in confronting the issues and limitations facing our members. I fully encourage all within the MLCC to join us as we grow “BETTER TOGETHER” in the coming year.

Sincerely,
Robert W. King

Q

When I signed a sales agreement to purchase a house, I had to deposit hand money with my realtor. How would I lose that money?

A

The events that could lead to the loss of your hand money are contained in the sales agreement that you signed. Typically, sales agreements for the purchase of real estate include various contingencies. If any of the contingencies are not met, you can withdraw from the agreement and your deposit will be returned to you. One common contingency is the mortgage contingency clause, which allows you to withdraw from the agreement and recover your deposit if you are unable to obtain a mortgage commitment or a mortgage commitment with specific terms. However, if you simply decide not to purchase the property without reason, you will usually lose your deposit.
