A Message from Deanna

Deanna Richter
MLCC President

November 2026

November is a wonderful month to experience all that is happening close to home. Across the area, local calendars are filled with opportunities to connect—from fall markets, craft shows and exhibits to heritage programs, seasonal food events, fundraisers and early holiday gatherings. Whether you are enjoying a meal at a local restaurant visiting a shop, taking in a performance or attending a community event, every outing is a chance to support the people who invest in this region.

As you make your plans, I encourage you to look first to our MLCC members. Consider purchasing a gift from a local retailer, booking a service with a trusted area professional, ordering from a neighborhood restaurant or choosing a local venue for your next gathering. These choices may seem small, but together they help sustain jobs, strengthen families and keep more of our spending circulating within the Laurel Highlands.

Be sure to like and follow the Mountain Laurel Chamber of Commerce Facebook page to keep up to date with all these local events.

Holiday Happenings:

- Holiday Arts & Craft Show – Saturday, November 14th at the Donegal Event Center
- Christmas in the Mountains – Friday, December 4th, Saturday, December 5th and Sunday December 6th
- Living Treasures Holiday Light-Up – Starts Friday, November 27th
- Braddock Trail Chapter DAR Festival of Lights – Starts Friday, November 27th
- Melcroft Light-up Night & Community Toy Drive – Tuesday, December 1st

Mark your calendars for this MLCC event too!

- Paint Night – Thursday, December 3rd at the ICV Sportsman's Club. Create a Sleep Santa and Mrs. Clause ornament and get into the Christmas spirit!
- MLCC Stocking Stuffer tickets are now available at the MLCC Office, See-Mor's All-Star Grill, Shari Bukovac Bookkeeping, Sarnelli's Wine Cellar, and LHTC Broadband.

Community appreciation takes many forms. We can thank a volunteer, recognize a teacher, welcome a new business, support a nonprofit or simply make time to check on a neighbor. We can honor the service of our veterans-on-Veterans Day and remember that civic pride is built through steady, shared participation—not just at major celebrations, but in the ordinary moments when we choose to show up for one another.

As Thanksgiving approaches, the Chamber is especially grateful for the businesses and organizations that continue to adapt, collaborate and give back. We are grateful for our members' confidence in the Chamber and for the partnerships that allow us to promote economic opportunities while preserving the character and hospitality of the Laurel Highlands.

Thank you for choosing local and for supporting one another and for believing in the future of this place we call home. Wishing everyone a warm and blessed Thanksgiving, and good luck to all the hunters on the first day of buck season!

With gratitude and holiday cheer,
Deanna Richter

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO ASK THE ATTORNEY

Bradley A. King, Esq
King Legal Group, LLC

Q If a judgment was entered against me ten years ago and nothing else happened with it since then, do I still have to worry about it?

A Unfortunately, yes, you do. The judgment is a lien against any real estate you own in the county and the judgment holder could, at any time, move forward with "executing" on the judgment to collect the amount due for the judgment. This could include, subject to a few exceptions, taking your personal property and/or freezing your bank accounts and requiring the bank to disburse funds in your bank account to the judgment holder to pay the judgment. This could happen suddenly and quickly even if the judgment holder has not taken any action to collect the judgment for many years. In fact, the judgment holder can take action against your personal property to collect the judgment at any time within twenty (20) years after the judgment was initially entered.

The Mountain Laurel Chamber of Commerce wishes to congratulate Aiden Mansberry, from Donegal Elementary School, for being the recipient of the October 2026 Student of the Month Award, sponsored by: Denise Kintigh Insurance Services.

"Aiden has started off the school year with a positive, hard-working attitude. He exhibits the qualities of an exceptional student. Aiden listens well, follows directions, completes work in a timely manner, and participates in class discussions. He is not afraid to volunteer or to seek help when needed. Aiden plays well with the other students and treats the students and adults in our building with respect. We are lucky to have him in our class. Thank you for rewarding his efforts."
